BOEC's Sold Out 13th Annual Tee It Up Golf Scramble is set for Monday, August 22nd at the Keystone Ranch Golf Course

Fourth consecutive sold-out tournament with all proceeds benefiting BOEC's adaptive outdoor programs for those with disabilities and special needs

[Keystone, Colo., August 16, 2022] – The Breckenridge Outdoor Education Center (BOEC), a Summit County-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit charity that is dedicated to expanding the potential of people with disabilities and special needs, hosts its 13th Annual Tee It Up Golf Scramble on Monday, August 22, 2022, at the Keystone Ranch Golf Course in Keystone, Colo. We are excited to announce that this event is sold out for the fourth consecutive year with proceeds benefitting BOEC's adaptive outdoor programs for those with disabilities and special needs.

The 13th installment of this annual golf scramble tournament kicks off with registration and practice range at 8:30am with a shotgun start to follow at 10:00am. All paid participants receive 18 holes with cart, access to a virtual auction with over 75 quality items, contests, breakfast, a pre-packaged lunch generously donated by Vail Resorts EpicPromise, access to the 19th Hole After Party brought to you by Cornerstone Real Estate Rocky Mountains and Vail Resorts EpicPromise, and a gift bag that includes a signature polo shirt and golf balls.

"We've really raised the bar in this thirteenth year of the event," said BOEC Marketing & Events Director Barry Rubenstein. "We are so humbled by the community for helping us to sell out four years straight, and really want to show our appreciation with the addition of some extra touches throughout the day."

In addition to prizes being awarded to the top three finishers, golfers will vie to win the longest drive (men & women), longest putt, closest to the pin (men & women), Beat the Pro, and a brand new putting contest this year. After the round is done, all golfers are encouraged to stick around for the 19th Hole After Party to enjoy snacks, small bites, and desserts from the Keystone Ranch kitchen, as well as the awards presentation.

The schedule is as follows:

8:30am – 10:00am: Breakfast, registration, and practice range
10:00am: Shotgun Start
4pm-6:30pm: Door prizes, awards, and 19th Hole After Party

About Tee It Up

The Tee It Up Golf Scramble was started 13 years ago in conjunction with the Scotty McFadden Foundation in honor/memory of Roy "Scotty" McFadden, Jr., a passionate Army helicopter pilot and adaptive ski instructor who was always helping others. McFadden died of a brain tumor in 2007, and as a veteran, himself, one of his wishes was that his foundation helps injured service members get the opportunity to get out and enjoy the outdoors. While the tournament is no longer geared towards BOEC's Veterans Programs, the memory of Scotty McFadden lives on. All proceeds from this event benefit BOEC's adaptive outdoor programs for those with disabilities and special needs. For more information about BOEC, please visit <https://www.boec.org>.
